Folkish Wodenism

Woden's Folk

Welcome to Woden's Folk which is the only true Folkish Wodenist Movement here in England, and which has consistently remained true to its Folkish Roots. Woden's Folk revived Wodenism on April 23rd 1998 as part of the Folkish Movement which aimed to create an awakening of the English Folk in order to fulfil the English Destiny. Through the work of the original White Dragon Kindred and then Woden's Folk the White Dragon Flag is now a widely used symbol of the English Awakening.

Our aim is to create a new Folkish Religion suited to the English Folk in today's world, not to hark back to the past, or dwell in the past, but to recreate the Ur-Religion of the English in a vital new form. It is futile to create an English Awakening and a regeneration of the Folk and the Land unless there is a higher purpose involved – and this higher purpose must be the evolution of the Folk, and to do so we have to defeat the Dark Forces that seek to halt our evolution, lock mankind into the material world, and create nothing less than a robot-race of slaves.

What we seek to achieve is a Spiritual Revolution within the English Folk which will help them return to their True Gods – the Gods of Germania. Our Gods did not leave us we left our Gods, long ago with the spread of the alien Judaeo-Christian Church. When we forgot our Gods they drew away from us; we have to reconnect to our Gods and Goddesses, and once more honour the Ancestors of the Folk. Being locked into the material world we are locked out from the Spiritual Light – our task is to regain the ability to rise up towards this Spiritual Light and move out of the darkness that has engulfed this Earth.

Woden's Folk is not a Membership Organisation but is the Hub of The Wheel which acts as the Spiritual Centre of the Folkish Movement. Woden's Folk publishes and prints material for Wodenists and co-ordinates activity at a national and local level through a number of independent Wodenic Hearths. WF is an active movement which holds regular Folk-Moots and Camps, where ritual and esoteric rites are done by the Inner Order – a select group of Wodenists who are known and trusted. Our work is done this way so as to keep a tight-knit group together without the bickering and arguments that causes friction and splits in many groups.

This is not to say that WF does not allow anyone else into our Movement, because we will be holding 'open' Folk-Moots so that newcomers can attend and see what we are all about. Interested people can attend an 'open' Folk-Moot and take part in rites and other activities, as well as enjoy a friendly social activity around the Sacred Fire – drinking ale and mead with like-minded English Folk. These will be small gatherings of a few WDK Activists who will welcome newcomers and interested parties who would like to see what a Religious Movement does for its activities.

Woden's Folk differs in many ways to the groups that have sprung up since we revived Folkish Wodenism back in April 1998. There are certain things that stand us apart from the rest and which are vitally important in that they keep the Flame of Folkish Wodenism alive –

- Woden's Folk is not merely an exoteric religion promoting and spreading the ideas that have been written down about our religion, but has also an Inner Mystery Religion (the core of all true religions) through which we regain the Ancient Knowledge and the Ancient Wisdom by intuitive means and by dream-work and meditation. Only by doing this can we regain what has been lost, and this applies as much to the Ancient Runes; the meanings of the runes are not just as written down, static and unchanging, but are alive and a 'vital energy' which reaches out to us to touch and to regain the Inner Meanings that have been distorted or lost altogether. Those who seek to tell you that the meanings of the runes are written down and unchangeable do so because they cannot delve deeply into the inner core of the runes and their deeper meanings. Our work in this area is to seek and to find new meanings to the Ancient Runes.
- Although the idea that the English invaded these islands beginning in 449CE when Hengest and Horsa led the Jutes against the Britons, there is growing evidence to show that these 'invasions' never happened as history tells us, and that Germanic tribes, including the Saxons, were already established and living here in England – possibly from very ancient times. One account tells how Julius Cæsar fought a battle against an alliance of Picts, Scots and Saxons – this being in 55BCE, some 500 years before the Saxons were said to have come to Britain. There is also the clear evidence of the worship of Woden/Odin in these islands by certain 'Celtic' tribes, whose origins are clearly Germanic rather than Gallic. The 'Welsh' god known as Gwydion or Wydion is clearly Woden. The idea that these islands were 'Celtic' is misleading, since there were Gallo-Celts and Germanic Tribes here in England from ancient times. Evidence of a massive sunken landmass around the area of the Dogger Bank in the North Sea seems to prove that England and the rest of these islands was once part of what was known as Atalland – a word which means Racial Homeland.
- Through careful study we have come to the conclusion that the Germanic Folk originated in an island in the Far North which was originally known as Hyperborea, and that the Germanic Folk were once known as the Hyperboreans. We have also come to the conclusion that the English have one of the oldest accounts of this homeland in the Far North which can be found in the Legend of Scaef who came to an island called Scandi bringing culture, agriculture, and fire – and this account goes way back to an era which we see as the end of the Golden Age. Scaef is also known as Ingwë who is the Divine Ancestor of the English and whose name was known throughout these islands at one time. The name Scandi means 'shining' and this title was once widely known as an island called the Shining Island which is the subject of legends as far away as Iran and India. We see the English as having a very long history way back into the Dawn of Time, and it is our duty and responsibility to study this and reclaim our own Ancient Wisdom.

- We have an entirely different view of English History, which we see as being far more important than just to remember our past glories and achievements. It is our belief that our history (in line with that of Germania) plays out an archetypal myth and that the 'invasions' by the Saxons and the later Vikings was not just 'accidental' or a 'folk-movement' but was a conscious effort to aid their Heathen Kinfolk already here in England, threatened by the growing power of an alien Judaeo-Christianity that was spreading across Europe – seeking the destruction of the Germanic Folk. It is also our belief that the battles fought by the Saxons and the Vikings were really part of an Eternal Cosmic Struggle between the Forces of Light & Order (The Gods) and the Forces of Darkness and Chaos (The Jötun or 'Giants'). It is our Divine Mission to continue that Eternal Cosmic Struggle in our own times, which is why we have come together after hearing the Call of the Blood – the awakening of the Blood Memory.

You can see how WF differs in so many ways from other Odinit, Wodenist and Asatru, and in some ways with Wotanism, which is the closest to Folkish Wodenism. We thus emphasise the term Folkish Wodenism so as to distance ourselves from the mainstream which also contains what is usually termed 'universalism' which does not recognise Race-Consciousness as a factor, and believes anyone of any race can follow the Northern Tradition. WF has a clearly-defined weltanschauung and a clear ideology and idealism which is the driving-force behind the Folkish Movement.

We have already stated that WF is not a 'membership organisation' so we have no 'members'; we have Wodenic Activists who work at different levels towards the creation of the new Woden Folk-Religion. Wodenic Hearths are independent units working in their own unique way towards the same end – using their own initiative to promote the Folk-Religion in their own way. Woden's Folk publishes and prints the literature, and acts as The Hub of the Wheel of Woden which is the Woden Network consisting of the Wodenic Hearths, Lone-Wolf Activists, and a network of Folkish Blogs and Websites that act separately but towards the same goal.

Woden's Folk is the publishing outlet but it also acts as the Sacred Centre from which everything radiates outwards, and the first step into Folkish Wodenism is to subscribe to our Folkish Magazines – the Sword of Wayland (exoteric) and the Spear of Woden (esoteric) – and the individual can progress from there. I have already mentioned that we shall hold future 'open' Folk-Moots to allow newcomers and interested people to take some part in what we do, and this will involve a special Folk-Moot and Camp designed to show what we do to outsiders. These are also social occasions in which friendships can be made and comradeship built up around the Sacred Fire – sharing the Mead and Ale with like-minded folk.

WF performs full Wodenic Profession as well as Child Naming for the children of Folkish Wodenists, 7-year Initiation and 14-Year Initiation which takes the child into Youth and then into full Profession at 18 years old or above. This is done at an exoteric level, and there is also an Initiatic Warrior Order which is the Inner Order of Woden's Folk. There is something for everyone in Woden's Folk and we encourage our women-folk to take an active role in the work since they are the bearers of the children of the future. As a Warrior-Religion and a Nature-Religion we have a varied outlook on religion, which we see as being lived every day and not as a 'part-time' activity.

We encourage people to bring their families along to some of the Folk-Moots and to try to bring their children up into the Faith. We can also give help to our kin who have problems dealing with children at school and have families who have home educated and know some of the ropes in this area, and can thus help others to make a difficult choice that may be necessary. Home Education is a viable and legal alternative to state school education, but is sometimes a difficult jump to make, but when a child has difficulties at school, that the school does nothing about and that is wrecking the child's life, it is good to know that there are others who can help with advice etc. The family is the most basic unit of our Folk, and the Tribe of Woden is its extension.

The ultimate aim of Woden's Folk is to create a Folkish Brotherhood that will bind our group together as a strong and active Folkish Movement and thus encourage others to get more involved and actively challenging the 'New World Order' in some small but effective ways. We need to create an English Resistance Movement that is strong enough to counter the onslaught of the Dark Forces of the Anti-World (Gegenwelt) which have set out to destroy the European Folk – which includes the English.

Here we need to emphasise that we are not narrow-minded 'patriots' who cannot see beyond what we call the 'English' since were we to take this line the world would be turned against us in another destructive war – just like the world was turned against the Germans in World War II when they sought to break free of the Global Banking System and the control of the Dark Forces. We recognise that some form of Europe of the Free Nations must be built in order that we co-operate rather than create conflict amongst our own kinfolk – and that some form of European Imperium is needed to unite us in strength to counter the destructive forces that today rule the world. Our motto here is – England in Germania – which is the aim of uniting the Germanic Folk and recreating the Greater Germania needed to usher in a new Golden Age of harmony and peace – but we recognise that struggle will be the only means to achieve this.

Now we need to turn to the structure of the Woden Folk-Religion to give you an idea as to what Wodenism is all about, and the role of Woden's Folk in the revival of Folkish Wodenism –

The Hub – Woden's Folk is the 'hub' of the Wheel of Woden which revolves around the Sacred Centre as the active movement around the Immovable Centre. Woden's Folk gives the stability to the Folkish Movement.

The Wheel of Woden – This is made up of the various independent hearths that are affiliated to the Woden Folk-Religion and which work at their own local level, promoting the Woden Folk-Religion. It is also made up of various individuals who run their own blogs or websites that support the Woden Folk-Religion and that promote some form of Folkish Wodenism in line with our weltanschauung and ideology. There are also Lone-Wolf Activists who work alone either overtly or covertly. This is a kind of Woden Network that works in the form of a 'leaderless resistance', with the role of the Folk-Warder as a guide.

THE WHEEL OF WODEN –

The following are run by Wulfinga and promote the Woden Folk-Religion within Woden's Folk –

WF Newsletter – The blog that gives information to WF Activists and to those interested in Folkish Wodenism.

Inglinga Blog – This blog is used for education, training, teaching and promoting the Woden Folk-Religion.

Ar-Kan Rune-Lag – This is the runic blog that promotes the new runic system devised by the Hearth of Heruli and taken up by the Woden Brotherhood which is the Inner Order of Woden's Folk.

Guerilla Survivalism – This is the blog that explains what we are doing in the way of training ourselves in Survivalism and Camp-Craft, as well as the Woodland Crafts which are essential to our work.

The following are run by Wotan's Krieger who is a WDK Activist and who runs these Folkish Blogs –

Aryan Myth and Metahistory

Die Armanenschaft der Ario-Germanen

Celto-Germanic Culture, Myth and History

Links to Troy Southgate whose role in National Anarchism is well known and whose help has been invaluable to WF in the past –

Black Front Press

Troy Southgate on Facebook

Another runic site that is invaluable to our research is the following, and which is run by a leading WF Activist -

Volkisch-Runes

The following are the websites within the Wheel of Woden –

Woden's Folk (www.wodensfolk.org.uk) – the official website of Woden's Folk where our magazines are promoted and articles can be seen; also this site gives links to other important websites and blogs.

Saxon Heathen (www.englishmovement.org.uk) – This is run by the Folk-Warder as an education and training site for Folkish Wodenism – and as the official 'Teaching Site' for Wodenism.

Runic-Warrior – This site promotes the Ar-Kan Rune-Lag and the Mysteries of Thule, as well as being a 'Teaching Site' for the Ancient Runes.

It is important that anyone who wishes to become active within the WF-R subscribes to our magazines because we NEVER give out information on activities via the Internet, emails, phone calls or texts – only through the postal mail services. This means that we would have to pay high postage costs, so we do this through sending details out with the magazines, which saves the cost of separate postage. It is thus essential that anyone who wishes to become active gets our magazines, hence the need to subscribe to them first. This is why we have a paper-based magazine here in England, although there are plans for an Online Magazine sent overseas – since we have a growing following in many areas of the world.

Now we need to turn to something that is of vital importance to us all, since it involves the evolutionary process and the possibility of recreating mankind as the most ancient Solar Race or Arya. It would seem clear to anyone of intelligence that the masses of today are nothing better than slaves to materialism and the consumer society – they lack any kind of spirituality whatever. Death is final, that is it, the end – One Life – Live It! This pathetic attitude, based upon rampant egoism, gives rise to the notion that it does not matter what we do, and results in the rotten world today where no-one cares about making a better world for our descendants. Tomorrow does not matter since it is 'Live for Today' that counts – so the wanton destruction of the Earth goes on, for no-one cares about the world of their children. Friedrich Nietzsche coined the best term for the masses of today – the 'Ultimate Man' – for this is as far as this mankind can ever get, for it is a dying species. This is the end of the process of evolution for the mass of people.

Friedrich Nietzsche did not stop there though, for he foresaw the rising of a 'New Man' who would be stronger and hold to ancient heathen values, thus preparing the Earth for the arrival of the Superman who would be the Higher Man. Philosophers like Nietzsche and others foresaw that the evolutionary process could carry on, but only for the few who separated themselves from the 'mob' and took control of their own destiny. We need now to understand what this means and how the evolutionary process can go on and upwards.

We have already mentioned the ancient Solar Race, and we should make it clear that the path that we have to take is the Solar Path rather than the Lunar Path which most religions are based on. The Solar Path or Way of the Gods can only be for the few, and not for the masses whose outlook is lunar-orientated – they can only 'reflect' the Spiritual Light of the Sun. Take a close look at the following quote -

"As modern witch and Jungian psychologist Viviane Crowley states, it (Wicca) owes much to the Dionysian, and the paganism of 'ecstatic vision, of trance, of the loss of individual consciousness and its merging into Nature...'"

The key words are – 'the loss of individual consciousness and its merging into Nature...' for this is the basis of most of the religions around the world, as well as the spiritual discipline known as Buddhism. The idea is based around the destruction of the ego (the 'I') and its submersion into the 'Primal Soup' or 'Cosmic Consciousness'. This can sometimes be called 'Union with God' but it means exactly the same thing – the destruction of the ego and self-awareness through being merged into the 'All'. We are witness to the mass-collectivism of the modern consumer economic society, which is paradoxically based upon rampant egoism and self-centredness. We need to delve deeper.

The ego or 'I' is the seat of self-consciousness, and at some time in the past mankind developed the ego in an evolutionary jump – obviously for some reason. Without the ego there could be no individualism, nor any kind of individual genius, for the collective would be the norm and upward movement would cease. We could symbolise this by the Serpent which slides along the Earth, i.e. is 'earthbound'. This is the S-elf (self) which has the Serpent (S) as its symbol. To reach upwards to the Immortals we need to rid ourselves of the Serpent (S) – leaving the prospect of Immortality as being an Enlightened One – the Elf. Put another way the Serpent needs wings, making it the Winged Serpent (Dragon) which flies upwards towards the heavens. This is the upward evolutionary process where the 'I' is not merged but is actually strengthened but transmuted into the Absolute I which creates the Superman.

This may need reading and re-reading until it is fully understood, because this lies at the core of the Woden Folk-Religion – that the Gods and Ancestors are aiding our evolution upwards towards the recreation of the Solar Race. There is not room here to mention all of the texts world-wide that mention the advent of a new Race of Man at the beginning of a new Cycle of the Ages – which is coming around again in our times. All of the ancient religions that concerned themselves with the spiritual advancement of the ruling elite (including the Germanic Tribes) were based upon the Solar Path and the prospect of immortality for the Divine Hero. This is a very important concept to understand.
